Dates are given only as a way of showing the time line for the reign of these kings starting from the accepted year of 1050 BC. The chart shows 3,194 years from Adam to the 4th year of King Solomon, which would be in 1050 BC.

Ancient dates are usually determined by the chronology of occurrences, either forward from the beginning or back from the current date. Usually, both use the solar calendar. Ancient writings, seals, and the Bible report the total number of years of a king or the number of years of a king beginning at, or up to, a certain occurrence. The plus or minus factor of a calculated date could be one year or many years. There is no accuracy, only surmise by piecing together bits of historical information.

DANIEL'S FOUR BEASTS

Daniel Chapters 7-9, 11

The fall of Jerusalem came when Babylon took the city and the people captive in 586 BC. Nebucahdnezzar of Babylon was the first of Daniel's four beast.

1. The first beast (lion) is comprised of one king.

2. The second beast (bear with three ribs in its mouth) is comprised of three Medo/Persian kings. These kings were instrumental in the return of the captives to Jerusalem.

Daniel's prophecy of seventy-sevens of weeks (Daniel 9:24-27) begins when Nehemiah dedicates the city and walls to YHVH at the time of the Feast of Ingathering, circa. 444 BC.

At an appointed time after the captives returned to Jerusalem, Alexander the Great (333-323 BC) took power over the then known world. When he died, his four generals divided his kingdom between them. Two generals built their empires in Egypt and Syria (see table below). The Seleucid Syrian empire is the one that died and will come back to life (Rev. 13:3) far in the future as the sprout from one of the four horns of Alexander's goat. (Dan. 8:21-27)

Note that Rome was never mentioned in any way in any of Daniel's prophecies, nor anywhere else in any other prophecy. Contrary to common belief, the destruction of the temple in Jerusalem by Rome in 70 AD has absolutely no connection to Daniel's prophecy of the four beasts or the seventy-sevens of weeks. It is an assumption no believer of Jesus Christ can afford to make. View the notes on Daniel 9:26-27 in the Word of YHVH Study Bible.

323-297	Cassander	four horns on the goat	Greece	Died with no heirs
323-281	Lysimicus		Asia-Minor	overtaken by Syria
323-63 BC	Seleucus: Seleucid		Syria	270 years of wars between Syria and Egypt.	Syrian horn will sprout new life per Dan. 11:28-29

CLUES TO THE IDENTITY OF THE FOURTH BEAST

The following are the clues to determine the identity of the Fourth Beast.

- The goat with four horns
- The death of Antiochus IV (Epiphanes) in 163 BC.
- The little horn sprouting from one of them,
- Daniel 11:29
 - This verse is about the little horn.
 - Antiochus IV went to Egypt twice and could not go a third time as this verse indicates, because he was dead.

THE THIRD AND FOURTH BEASTS

The third beast is comprised of six people in three phases:

- Alexander's death is represented by one broken horn on the goat.
- The goat with four horns represents Alexander's four generals who divided his kingdom between themselves.
 - Their kingdoms were eventually consumed by Rome
- The sprout that comes out of one of the dead horns represents the one who will come out of the ancient Seleucid Empire.
 - Antiochus IV (Epiphanes) is the one whose death is healed. The Fourth Beast will be as vicious as Antiochus IV, and much more.

Third Beast:

Body--Alexander the Great

Four heads--his four generals who succeeded him.

Two sets of wings:

- one set for the Fourth Beast
- one set for his false prophet

Fourth Beast: (see image)

THE RIDDLE OF THE SEVEN HEADS (Rev. 17:9-11)

- Five fell--Alexander and his four generals
- One is--the spirit of all the beasts. This is also the unseen eighth head who is Satan, which was and is not, because he will be bound and sent to the pit of hell at the seventh trumpet. He is Satan.
- One is yet to come--the sprout of new life comes from the dead Seleucid, Antiochus IV (Epiphanes). His fatal wound was healed. (Rev. 13:3)

Third Beast--Leopard in

Fourth Beast:
Has the spirit of all three beasts, body of a leopard, feet of a bear, and teeth of a lion
